Visual Resource Management Classes
Approved RMP

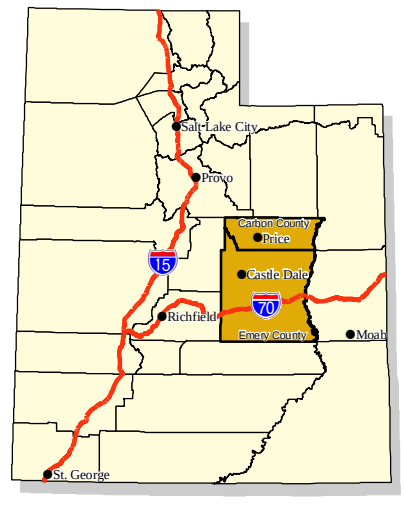
Map R-5

Class 1 - To preserve the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be very low and not attract attention.

Class 2 - To retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low.

Class 3 - To partially retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be moderate.

Class 4 - To provide for management activities which require major modification of the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape can be high.



Source: BLM Price Field Office