

National Greater Sage-Grouse Planning Strategy

Northeast California Recreation

Off-highway vehicle (OHVs) designations are available for the Alturas and Eagle Lake Field Offices only. Riding OHVs and other activities that result in concentrated recreational activities can cause disturbances to leks, nesting and brood rearing areas, and winter ranges. Updated management of BLM and Forest Service recreational sites in important sage-grouse habitat could reduce potential impacts to the greater sage-grouse.

- | | | |
|----------------------------|---|-----------------------|
| Hunt zone | Alturas OHV designations | Closed |
| USFS Recreation Sites | Seasonal Closures | Limited to Designated |
| 75% breeding bird density | Designated Roads and Trails Only | Open |
| 100% breeding bird density | Open | |
| BLM Field Office boundary | Designated Roads and Trails Only, Seasonal Closures | |
| | Closed | |

0 10 Miles
 20-203 January 2012
 No warranty is made by the BLM for the use of the data for purposes not intended by the BLM.