

Alternative A: Preliminary Priority and General Habitat

Alternative A uses Preliminary Priority Habitat (PPH) and Preliminary General Habitat (PGH) to facilitate comparison of management actions across the other alternatives. PPH includes areas identified as having the highest conservation value to maintaining sustainable GRS populations, such as breeding, late brood-rearing, and winter concentration areas. PGH includes areas of occupied seasonal or year-round habitat outside of PPH. Please also see note below.

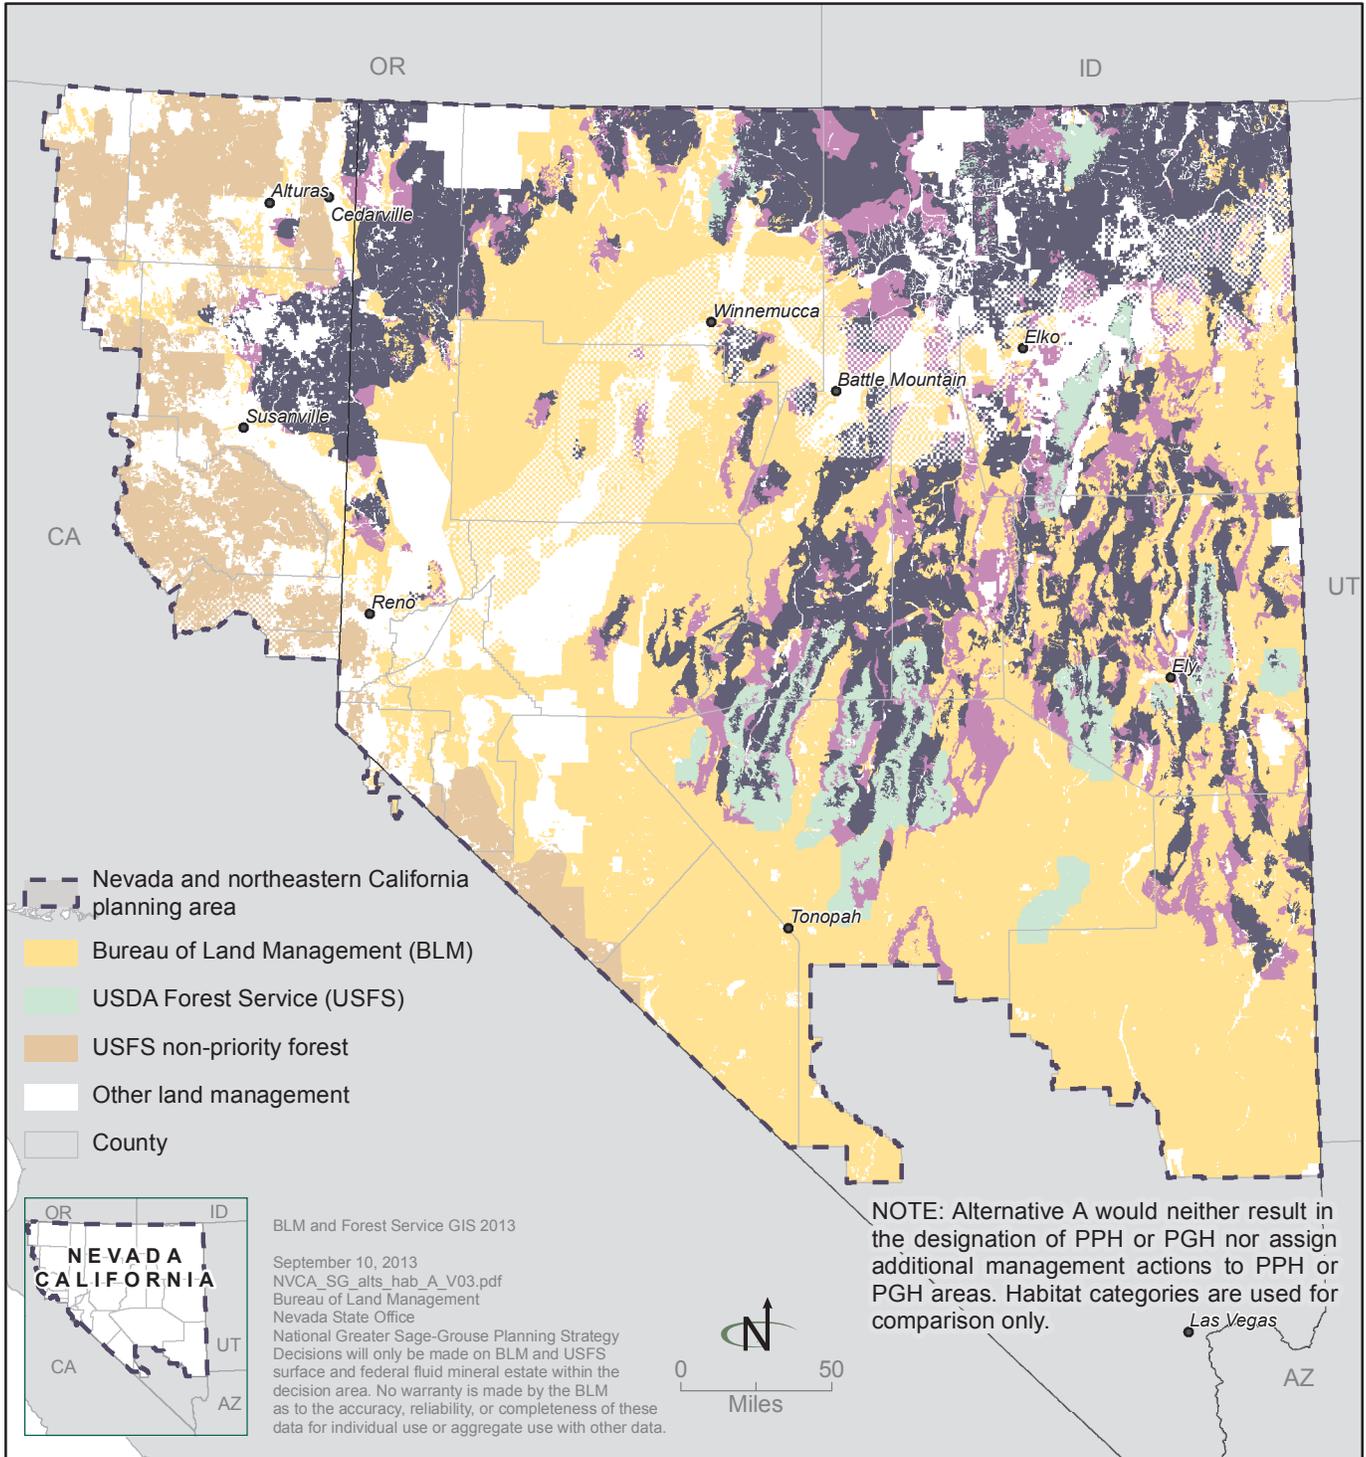

Figure 2-1