Dominguez-Escalante National Conservation Area Resource Advisory Council to meet

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. – The Dominguez-Escalante National Conservation Area Advisory Council will meet two more times before the NCA’s Draft Resource Management Plan comment period ends Sept. 23.

RMPs guide the management of public lands for approximately 20 years. The 10-member advisory council was formed by the Secretary of the Interior to advise the BLM on the development of the draft RMP now out for review. All advisory council meetings are open to the public and include time for public comments.

The final two meetings will focus on recreational use, transportation and travel management. The Aug. 19 meeting is scheduled at the Mesa County Courthouse Annex in the Multipurpose Room in Grand Junction. The Aug. 21 meeting is scheduled at the Bill Heddles Recreation Center in Delta.

All meetings are held from 3-6 p.m.
