A. BACKGROUND

Project Name / Type: AEA 2013 Research Projects Minimum Impact Permit

NEPA Register Number: DOI-BLM-AK-A020-2013-0015-CX

Case File Number: AA-093571

Location / Legal Description: This project is located around the Susitna/Watana Dam project area. This is on State or dual selected BLM-managed lands. Maps are attached.

Applicant (if any): Alaska Energy Authority (AEA)

Description of Proposed Action:

Alaska Energy Authority (AEA) has submitted an application to the BLM for a Minimum Impact Permit to conduct field testing/monitoring in conjunction with study plans submitted to Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for the Susitna-Watana Hydroelectric Project. AEA proposes to begin the testing/monitoring during the 2013 field season. The permit would cover up to 50 sites with no more than 5 acres (total) impacted. These testing/monitoring sites are located on BLM-managed lands surrounding the proposed Susitna-Watana Dam project (maps available upon request). Access to the sites would be by helicopter. Some clearing of willows and small brush for the helicopter landing zones would be necessary. This vegetation will grow back normally when activities are concluded. These testing/monitoring sites include rotary screw traps, pit tag arrays, and telemetry sites for fisheries and wildlife studies; water quality, stream gaging, and temperature monitoring equipment; and noise monitoring equipment.
