1. Background

The existing right-of-way for a buried telephone line (WAW-05046) has expired. CenturyLink filed an application requesting that the right-of-way be renewed. BLM is proposing to renew the original right-of-way with a new case number, WAOR-68604. The total length of the buried telephone line is approximately 1,162 feet and the right-of-way totals 0.260 acres. No new ground disturbance is proposed. No additional rights will be authorized.

2. Decision

I have decided to authorize a right-of-way to CenturyLink for the continued operation and maintenance of their buried telephone line as described in categorical exclusion DOI-BLM-ORWA-W020-2016-0008-CX. The right-of-way would include the terms and condition described in Exhibit B of the categorical exclusion.

3. Authority and Rationale for Decision

My decision is authorized under the authority of Title V of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of October 21, 1976 (90 Stat. 2776; 43 U.S.C. 1761). Because this is an existing buried telephone line, renewing the right-of-way is the most environmentally responsible action. As described in DOI-BLM-ORWA-W020-2016-0008-CX, this decision would not result in any significant impacts to the human or natural environment.

4. Administrative Review or Appeal Opportunities

This decision may be appealed to the Interior Board of Land Appeals, Office of the Secretary, in accordance with the regulations contained in 43 CFR, Part 4. To appeal you must file a notice of appeal at the BLM Wenatchee Field Office, 915 N. Walla Walla Ave., Wenatchee, WA 98801, within 30 days from receipt of this decision. The appeal must be in writing and delivered in person, via the United States Postal Service, or other common carrier, to the Wenatchee Field Office as noted above. The BLM does not accept appeals by facsimile or email. The appellant has the burden of showing that the decision appealed from is in error.

My decision is issued in accordance with 43 CFR 2801.10(b) and may be implemented immediately. This decision will remain in effect while appeals are pending unless a stay is granted under 43 CFR 4.21 (b).

If you wish to file a petition) for a stay of the effectiveness of this decision (see 43 CFR 4.21) during the time that your appeal is being reviewed by the Board, the petition for a stay must accompany your notice of appeal. Except as otherwise provided by law or other pertinent regulation, a petition for a stay of decision pending appeal shall show sufficient justification based on the following standards: (a) The relative harm to the parties if the stay is granted or denied, (b) The likelihood of the appellant's success on the merits, (c) The likelihood of immediate and irreparable harm if the stay is not granted, and (d) Whether the public interest favors granting the stay.

Copies of the notice of appeal and petition for a stay must also be submitted to each party named in this decision and to the Interior Board of Land Appeals and to the Office of the Solicitor (see 43 CFR 4.413); Regional Solicitor, Pacific Northwest Region, U.S. Department of the Interior, 805 SW Broadway, Suite 600, Portland, OR 97205; at the same time the original documents are filed with this office.
