

This map identifies the Ten West Link proposed route and alternatives filed with the California Independent System Operator (CAISO). The project team seeks public input on these routes and any additional route options in the identified study area that would meet the project purpose and need and reduce impacts.

