Please Don't Open ANWR to drilling! When the wildlife is gone, it's gone. Period. How will you defend this to your kids and grandkids? It's a wildlife Refuge, for god's sake!

And Lisa Murkowski's estimate of value to Alaska has no basis in reality. How could it possibly be worth a billion dollars to the US treasury over ten years when lease and sales data from the North Slope suggests the number would be closer to just 50 million?

A good eco-tourism plan for ANWR would bring in millions of dollars each and every year for decades to come, without destroying the resource!

PLEASE DON'T DRILL THE REFUGE!
