To whom it may concern,

I am explicitly writing this letter to you to express my compelling reasons why the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge should definitely not be disrupted in any way shape or form!

Firstly, why would anyone call this Refuge for Wildlife a Refuge if the Wildlife could no longer go there to seek protection, safety, comfort in a home set aside for there own use!

Secondly, you know and we know that you know that whatever nasty oil is found is certainly not worth disrupting a REFUGE to get at it!!!

Thirdly,are there not closer sources of oil and whatever you get out of the ground found nearby the USA!!! Why would anyone in their right minds need to go so far afield to get something that is already available in their own Backyard!!

Fourth, you may not think very hard about your decisions in advance, but what could happen in the not too distant future could shock and surprise you and not in a good way, and then your disastrous decision will be wide open for all to see!!

Five, whatever action is taken there will be an equal and opposite reaction. It could be the type of reaction that you really do not want!
