Dear Bureau of Land Management,

I'm continuously in disbelief that so many people on this small fragile planet still play dumb to the necessity of clean air, clean soil, and clean water.

Senseless drilling in the Arctic is an act of stupidity and greed. It's as simple as that. We cannot continue to bathe in the poisons fossil fuel operations bring into our lives. I do not accept that those of you who participate in such activities cannot pursue better, safer, cleaner, options, but if you remain unable to do so, I urge you to offer your wealth to those who can.

Respectfully,
Evelyn Taylor
New Ipswich, NH

Sincerely,
