The thought of opening up the refuge to oil exploits makes me SICK ! Is there nowhere left in this country safe from American greed?The arctic refuge is one of the last true wilderness America has left,what part of refuge do they not understand?Americans we not be happy til every part of this country is tamed,exploited and destroyed!It makes me ashamed of being an American!There are places that just need to be left alone!This is one of them!DO NOT DESTROY THIS LAND AND THE WILDLIFE THAT DEPENDES ON IT!
