I would like to formally submit that it would be a tragedy and a transparently greedy move to allow oil drilling in the arctic wildlife refuge. Not only is this home to protected wildlife and incredible BLM lands that belong to all of us, but this is a strategic move to make this horrible administration (I AM LOOKING AT YOU SCOTT PRUIT) tons of money. Frankly I am disgusted that this is even up for discussion, but sadly it's not surprising these days. Please don't do it.
