Hello,

I am writing to implore you not to open ANWR to any oil development. I just returned from a 10 day backpacking trip in this amazing pristine wilderness area and the thought of any kind of oil exploration or drilling or the infrastructure it takes is deplorable. We as human beings need to have some places left untouched on this precious earth.

Places where the earth can heal herself and life can continue as it has since the beginning. There is huge value in preserving this area as it is. Once wilderness is lost, it can never be regained.

Please do not jeopardize this incredible place on our earth.

sincerely,

Carolyn Brodin
