Dear BLM Alaska,

The blatant handing out of our wild places to oil corporations is sickening and makes me ashamed to be American. But especially in the arctic, being so isolated and wild, is the cost and risk too much even from an economic standpoint. Any accident will not be adequately contained, especially with the rush to drill in this wild place.

Stop this greedy, heartless plan. We need our wild places and ecosystems to be protected, not exploited.

Sincerely,

William Wright
