

As a Pro-Life Christian, I am called by God to be a steward of America's majesty. I oppose the Trump Administration's efforts to allow oil drilling in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge and call on other elected officials to oppose drilling there, too. As a steward of God's creation, I commit to preserve and protect the pristine lands God has given us.