Dear Bureau of Land Managment,

I strongly oppose efforts to develop an oil and gas program in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. The Department has an obligations to responsibly steward one of the crown jewels of the nation's National Wildlife Refuge System, not pillage and plunder it or any other for corporate greed.

Destroying beautiful and nature treasures of this once great country is not a great legacy and is not something to be proud of. History will remember you as a villain, one who aided and abetted treason to bring this country down.

Sincerely,

Terri Coppersmith
