Comments:

I want to make public my worry about the big trouble
means the pipelines in Alaska and also around the world.
We are living one critical point without return, where we have to take the right decisions, lots of animals are paying for our mistakes, they are not guilty, they don't know what is going on, the land where they live is one of the last treasures that we keep. Please do not destroy it.
Our biggest indigenous people community must last forever
, not when our country needs more resources.

Please, do not make USA a shame in the world taking bad decisions
