Because we read "Please Note: As of 3 pm AKST on Tuesday, March 12th, the BLM's online comment form seems to be malfunctioning. To avoid the form, you can email your comments directly to Nicole Hayes, the Project Coordinator, at mnhayes@blm.gov." we are e-mailing you our comments of concern and opposition to drilling ....

Dear, Ms Hayes and the BLM - There has been (and continues to be) an overwhelming national interest in keeping the National Arctic Wildlife Refuge free from industrial oil development. We sincerely hope that BLM considers the nearly 700,000 public comments made last year and says "NO" to drilling in this very special, sensitive place. Some places should remain wild. This is one of them!
Thank you for your consideration.
