Subject: [EXTERNAL] DO NOT SELL OUT: public comment on Arctic National Wildlife Refuge
To: <mnhayes@blm.gov>

I moved to Alaska for the pristine wilderness, fresh water, and substance lifestyle, PERIOD. Humans who live in this world after myself deserve to see a glimpse of what it was like, and potentially have the opportunity to experience and live in it like I have (which is more domestic than I'd prefer- I'd love to SEE a caribou in the wild and would be honored to have one in my freezer). I WISH I had the privilege like my parents and the generations before them to witness the wildness of the world. The BLM did NOT complete the EIS in good faith, did NOT complete the EIS in adequate time, and under estimated the economic opportunity of the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge beyond oil. Alaska is on the frontlines of relocating villages and experiencing warming climate patterns faster than Outside. I urge Alaska to diversify their economy for their future NOT for the PFD or the next election cycle.

Sincerely,
