To whom it may concern:

Please leave the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge alone. Oil and gas greed don't belong there. This process is rushed, and this battle has been fought over and over.

I have been to the Colville River. The area is beyond compare and should remain pristine. ANWR and the entire coastal plain should be protected, without repeated battles to destroy it. Land so fragile can never recover from the violence of oil and gas drilling.

Do not sacrifice this irreplaceable land for greed.
